

Please be kind

2/3

of GPs say their experience of abuse, threatening behaviour or violence got worse during the 12 months to June 2021.

Dealing with people who are abusive or aggressive towards our staff or patients, takes us away from caring for you.

We have the right to refuse treatment and take further action against anyone who threatens the safety of our staff and patients